

Consonant Patterns: ck, ng, qu

I can read and spell words with ck, ng and qu.

Today I am learning to:

- ☐ hear the pattern sound
- ☐ read ck, ng and qu
- ☐ build words with the patterns
- ☐ use the words in context

1 Meet the Patterns

Some letters work together in common spelling patterns. Say each word and notice the highlighted letters.

ck
duck

often spells /k/ after a short vowel

ng
ring

often spells the sound at the end of sing

qu
quiz

usually spells /kw/ at the start of a word

2 Build the Word

Join the word parts. Read the whole word, then write it.

du + ck = _

so + ck = _

ri + ng = _

si + ng = _

qu + iz = _

qu + it = _

3 Read and Sort

Cut and stick, or write each word under its spelling pattern.

ck

ng

qu

duck

back

ring

sing

long

quiz

quit

quick

4 Read and Notice

Read the short passage. Circle ck, ng and qu.

Quinn packs a snack and walks to the pond. A duck pecks at a rock while a strong wind blows. Quinn hears a bird sing and sees its wing flash. He stays quiet, then spots a quick rabbit near the bank.

Word detective: Find one ck word, one ng word and one qu word. Read each aloud.

5 Use the Words

Choose a word from the box to complete each sentence.

quick

rock

quiet

1. The _____ swims on the pond.

2. We like to _____ a song.

3. The rabbit is very _____.

4. Please stay _____ while we listen.

★ Challenge!

Write one more word with each pattern: ck _____ ng _____
qu _____

You did it!
