

Talk About Most, Least, and Same in Simple Data

★ Today I am learning to talk about most, least, and same in simple data.

1. Let's Look Look at the picture groups. Circle the answer.

a. Which group has the most?

☐

☐

☐

b. Which group has the least?

☐

☐

☐

c. Which two groups are the same?

☐

☐

☐

d. Which group has the most?

☐

☐

☐

2. Let's Try Read the data. Write or circle most, least, or same.

a. Which has the most?

Apples	Bananas	Grapes

Answer: _____

b. Which has the least?

Cats	Dogs	Birds

Answer: _____

c. Which two are the same?

Cars	Trains	Bikes

Answer: _____ and _____

d. Which has the most?

Red Crayons	Blue Crayons	Green Crayons

Answer: _____

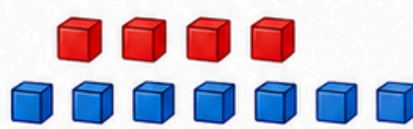

3. Let's Talk Talk about the data.

a. Which has more: cats or dogs?

Answer: _____

b. Which has fewer: red blocks or blue blocks?

Answer: _____

c. Which two groups have the same number?

Answer: _____ and _____

4. Challenge Draw and compare.

a. Draw more stars in one box so it has the most.

b. Draw or write so two groups are the same.

My Learning Check

I can do it!

Almost there!

I needed help.

This was hard.

Circle a face.

Parent Observation (optional)

- ☐ Talked about most and least
- ☐ Found groups that are the same
- ☐ Compared picture data
- ☐ Explained thinking
- ☐ Needed support

Notes: _____